

Wisconsin Department of Health Services
Division of Public Health
Wisconsin Health Improvement Planning Process (WI-HIPP)

Issues Submitted for Consideration as Health Priorities as of January 29, 2016

- Access – Disabled Veterans
- Access – Immigrants and Refugees
- Access – Language and Interpreters
- Access – Workforce
- Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs)
- Alcohol Abuse and Binge Drinking
- Alzheimer's
- Antimicrobial Resistance
- Asthma
- Brain Injuries, Stomach Issues
- Cancer – Breast
- Cancer – Colorectal
- Cancer – Lung
- Cancer – Melanoma (Skin)
- Cancer – Overall for American Indian and Alaska Natives
- Cancer – Prostate
- Cardiovascular Disease
- Child Abuse
- Clostridium Difficile Infections
- Depression
- Diabetes
- Domestic Abuse
- Drug Use and Abuse – Marijuana
- Drug Use and Abuse – Overdose and Prescription Drug Abuse
- Environmental Impacts on Health – Indoor Air Pollution and Water Quality
- Falls
- Guns
- Healthy Aging in Place
- Health Disparities, Health Equity, Minority Health
- Healthy Growth and Development
- Hepatitis C Virus
- HIV and Syphilis in Young Minority Youth
- Infant Mortality
- Influenza
- Lead
- Lyme Disease and Tick-borne Diseases
- Medication Adherence
- Motor Vehicle Crashes (Teen Drivers)
- Nutrition
- Obesity
- Oral Health
- Physical Activity
- Quality Metrics and Measures
- Reproductive and Sexual Health
- Sexual Assault and Violence
- Sexually Transmitted Infections
- Stroke
- Suicide
- Surgical Site Infections
- Tobacco Use and Exposure
- Tuberculosis